SOUTH CAROLINA DAY AT THE CHARLESTON EXPOSITION.

Thursday, March 26th, has been set apart by the Exposition authorities and the general assembly as South Carolina Day at the Charleston Exposition, and the governor in a proclamation has endorsed the action of the legislature and urged the people to attend the Exposition at some time during its progress, and especially on South Carolina Day.

We hope to see Newberry County largely represented in Charleston on this day. It is unnecessary to repeat here the many reasons why every citizen of the State who can, should attend the Exposition. But if the people of South Carolina want to see displayed the resources and industries of their State, and of almost every section of the world, they should not miss the opportunity that is here offered. The exhibits in any one building alone will justify the trip. And especially should the South Carolina building, where are gathered all the exhibits from the several counties, and where are shown the resources and advantages and possibilities of the State at large, draw the people of this State to the Exposition.

The Exposition is a State enterprise, worthy of the most hearty support and encouragement of the State, and South Carolina Day should be the red letter day in its history, and we hope to see a large number of the people of our county in attendance.

By all means attend the Exposition, and if possible, be there on South Carolina Day.

THE PEOPLE MISREPRESENTED.

The following interview from Senator Tillman appeared in the New York Sun the day after Tillman's denial of the Platt interview:

"Senator Tillman was asked last night: 'Is the state of public feeling in South Carolina such that President Roosevelt would be in danger of personal violence should he carry out his plans of visiting your State?'"

"The senator's verbatim reply was: 'I don't believe it is dangerous in that sense, but I know there is very intense feeling there. Our people are not savages, but you can't undertake to speak for an entire people in that condition of mind. If I were to go and say they wouldn't insult President Roosevelt if he should go there, it might inspire some drunken fool to do it. There might be some drunken fool who would blow off his indignation and not have proper regard for the proprieties which would obtain almost anywhere in the United States.'"

If the above interview with Senator Tillman be true, and we presume it is, as the Times, the Tribune, and the World, of the same date, reported substantially the same interview, Senator Tillman is doing his State and his people a great injustice. The people of South Carolina are neither "drunken fools" nor are they lacking in "proper regard for the proprieties which would obtain almost anywhere in the United States." So far as we have been able to observe, there is no "intense feeling" anywhere in this State regarding the President and he would not be in the slightest danger of any harm. On the contrary he will be given a most cordial and hearty reception and welcome as the chief magistrate of this country. We cannot say that the people of South Carolina will condemn Mr. Tillman for this misrepresentation, for it seems that during his reign in this State he has been at liberty to say anything that he pleases and even on the stump when he would denounce his supporters as fools, the sentiment would be applauded. How long he will continue to hold such sway over the people of this State we are not able to say.

The news of the death of Mr. J. D. Campbell, official stenographer of the Seventh circuit, was received in Newberry on last Monday with deep regret. Mr. Campbell during his service in this position had made many warm friends in Newberry. Personally we liked and esteemed him, and always looked forward with pleasure to his coming among us.

His presence will be missed at the Newberry courts, and the place which he had won in the esteem of his friends in Newberry will be hard to fill.

The article published in our last issue was mistaken in saying that Mr. Campbell was the first stenographer of this circuit. He succeeded Mr. W. A. Laws, now president of the Spartanburg National Bank, who was the first stenographer, and filled the position most acceptably.

Mr. Wyatt Aiken, of Abbeville, has announced that he will be in the race for congress from this district. Mr. Aiken is well and pleasantly known in the State. He is a young man, the son of the late Hon. D. Wyatt Aiken, who represented his district in congress at the time of his death. He has held the important position of court stenographer for eighteen years, and has filled the position with satisfaction to all. He went into the First South Carolina Regiment, in the war with Spain, as a private, and was later promoted to first lieutenant and acted as regimental quartermaster during his whole term of office. He has taken an active part in politics and has many friends in the district.

The death of Rev. Dr. Jno. T. Chalmers, in Charlotte, on yesterday is a great loss to the A. R. P. church in the South and to the Christian ministry. He was a man far above the average in intellectual ability and a faithful servant of his church.

The people throughout the State learned with pleasure that President Roosevelt had not given up his intention of visiting the Charleston Exposition, and that he will likely attend some time during the present month. For the President to have decided otherwise after the Tillman-McLaurin mess and the various interviews from Senator Tillman and contradictions thereof, would have been a misfortune both to the Exposition and to South Carolina. He will be welcomed by the people of this State and treated with honor and courtesy while in South Carolina.

GRADED SCHOOL BUILDING FOR PROSPERITY.

The Act Passed by Last Legislature Authorizing Vote in Prosperity on Erecting New School Building and Support of School.

An act to enable and authorize school district No. 11 in Newberry county to issue bonds for the purpose of building and erecting a school house therein.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina: That the school trustees, or their successors of school district No. 11 in Newberry county, embracing the town of Prosperity, are hereby authorized and required to issue coupon bonds to the amount of five thousand dollars for the purpose of erecting, building and equipping a public school house to be located in the town of Prosperity. That a majority of the qualified electors of said school district, voting, shall be in favor of such issue as may be expressed at an election hereafter to be held for that purpose. That said trustees shall not order said election, except upon a petition of a majority of the freeholders of said school district. Provided, further, At the same election there shall be elected an advisory board of said trustees who shall serve in the event of the bonds being voted consisting of three freeholders of said district who shall have equal power with said trustees and shall serve as said advisory board until all funds therein voted shall have been exhausted.

Sec. 2. That the trustees of said school district are hereby required to give three weeks previous notice in one or more of the newspapers published in the county of Newberry, of the time and place of such election, appoint the managers, prescribe the form of ballots, receive the returns and declare the result.

Sec. 3. That said school district is hereby declared a body corporate, for the purpose of executing and issuing bonds in case their issue is authorized by certain election. The said bonds shall be issued in such denominations as the trustees of said school district shall deem best, and shall be payable twenty years from the date of their issue, with interest payable annually, at a rate not to exceed six per cent. per annum. The said bonds shall be signed by the Chairman of the board of trustees of said school district and countersigned by its secretary, and their coupons shall be received in payment of any taxes in said school district, and said bonds shall constitute a first lien on the said school house and the lot upon which it is built. The said bonds shall be exempt from taxation, for State or municipal purposes.

Sec. 4. That for the purpose of paying the interest accruing on said bonds, the Auditor of Newberry county or such other officer as may be charged with the assessment of taxes, shall levy annually a tax of one and one-half mills on all taxable real and personal property in said school district, as well as a sum sufficient for said purpose and the amount so levied shall be collected by the treasurer of Newberry county, as State and county taxes are collected, to be held and applied by him solely to the payment of the said interest and shall be used for no other purpose whatsoever.

Sec. 5. That the said board of trustees are authorized and empowered to sell said bonds at their par value, and shall deposit all moneys coming to them from such sales in bank to the credit of said board, to be drawn on checks signed by a majority of said board and they shall use the said moneys exclusively for the purpose set out in Section 1 of this Act, and should any said bonds be not used, they shall be cancelled by the said board of trustees.

Sec. 6. The Auditor of Newberry county shall annually levy on the taxable property of said school district a tax of three fourths of a mill for the purpose of creating a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds, which tax shall be collected by the treasurer of Newberry county and shall be held by him for the purpose aforesaid; Provided, however, That said trustees at the end of every five years shall have the right to order such sinking fund then accumulated paid pro rata on the bonds then out standing.

Sec. 7. This Act shall take effect immediately upon its approval.

Approved the 26th day of February, A. D. 1902.

Governor.

Good Work of Police.

Hon. F. H. Dominick had a unique card which contained presents received on the occasion of his recent birthday while in Columbia attending the legislature, which were pieces of money pasted on a large card with the names of the donors written beneath each—all in a nice frame, hanging on the wall in his office. The total amount of money on the card was $1.61. When Mr. Dominick went to his office yesterday morning he found the frame and card on the floor and the money gone. He put the police on the case and in about two hours they had discovered that the mischief had been done by a couple of little idle archers that are constantly playing around the streets. This was a good piece of work on the part of the police. Mr. Dominick prized the presents very highly.

Doing the Right Thing.

The trouble begins with a tickling in the throat and a nagging little cough. Soreness in the chest follows and the patient wonders if he is going to have an all winter cold. Probably, if he does the wrong thing or nothing. Certainly not if he uses Perry Davis' Painkiller, the staunch old remedy that cures a cold in twenty-four hours. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

WEDDED IN CHARLOTTE.

Mr. Geo. M. Bishop Marries a Popular Young Lady of Charlotte, N. C.

The Charlotte Observer of Thursday contained the following account of a wedding of special interest here:

"At her beautifully ornamented home on North Graham street, this city, last evening, surrounded by a number of relatives and friends, numbering nearly two hundred Miss Nancy Maxwell, the lovely and popular daughter of Col. and Mrs. D. G. Maxwell, and Mr. G. M. Bishop, of Columbia, S. C., a prominent South Carolinian and a law agent of the Southern railway, were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Dr. John W. Stagg, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church.

"The bridal party was preceded by two charming little ribbon girls, Misses Ethel and Margaret Pritchard, nieces of the bride, daintily dressed in white organdy.

The wedding march from Mendelssohn was artistically rendered by Miss Pattie Morris.

"The bride wore a handsome going away gown of cedar green cloth with trimmings of cream applique, hat to match, and carried a bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Alma Bishop, a sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. She was dressed in white silk mulle, with ribbon trimmings and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Mary Maxwell, sister of the bride and maid of honor, was gowned in rose liberty silk, black velvet, and white applique trimmings and carried carnations.

"After the marriage ceremony there was a reception, with elaborate refreshments. The young couple received many hand-presents. Mr. P. I. Wells, superintendent, and many other prominent officials of the Southern railway, from Newberry and Columbia, S. C., were present. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop left on the Southern at 10 o'clock for points in Florida and Cuba.

In Memory of Mrs. Elizabeth Wicker.

The messenger of death has again visited the home of Mr. Monroe Wicker, and taken the dear old mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Wicker. It was a great shock to the community. She leaves two children and three daughters and a host of grandchildren to mourn her departure. It has been the writer's pleasure to converse with her on religious topics, and I have every assurance that she died trusting in her Divine Saviour. She had many friends that will miss the cheerful face, her seat at her church as now unoccupied, and the vacant chair now at home is set aside. "Mother is no more." Friends do not weep, she is sweetly resting in the arms of Jesus. She has been a member of the church, and living a Christian for 65 years, surely she is at peace. She had no fear of the sting of death, and now she is reaping her just reward, with Jesus and his heavenly host, and will be waiting for her loved ones to come.

How peaceful the slumber. How happy the waking, for death was only a dream.

The State Sunday School Convention.

The State Sunday School Convention which will meet in Greenwood, S. C., March 25-27 will be a notable gathering. From information already had we have reason for expecting a large attendance; enquiries for programs and other information are coming in from all sections of our State. Besides prominent and forcible speakers of our State who will attend, the Sunday School association has engaged the services of Mr. Chas. D. Meigs, of Indianapolis, Ind., who will deliver several of his wide awake addresses. Mr. Meigs is widely known as a Sunday school specialist, and in some sections is referred to as the "Sunday School Awakener." He is the author of several monographs relating to the great Sunday School movement that is awakening this and other continents to larger appreciation of the opportunities everywhere within reach of every well meaning, consecrated man and woman. He is also associate editor of the "International Sunday School Evangelist" published in St. Louis. He is a live wire and will do us all good. It will be a source of great delight and of improvement both spiritually and mentally to every superintendent and teacher who will attend. The expense is significant, but the cause is great. I hope that the Sunday schools of South Carolina will take up this matter forthwith and if the superintendent or a teacher say in each school is disinclined or disinterested, then let the Sunday school defray the expenses of the trip, and it will be more than amply reimbursed. It is the cause of the Master; let no man be a slaggard, or see any lions in the way. Lastly, this movement stands for christian co-operation in good work, not organic union. It stands for larger equipment, for better teaching, better methods and for everything that is helpful, hopeful and good in Sunday school work. Will you help? Faithfully,

W. E. Pelham,
Chairman Executive Com.

Long Lane Items.

Mr. Charley Suber has bought a fine mule.

Messrs. Chas. A. Suber, T. D. Ramage, J. W. Caldwell and J. C. Rikard took in the Charleston exposition recently. They report it fine and a lot of a nice time.

Miss Ada McCullough is visiting at Mr. C. K. Bakers.

Miss Epps from Bachman Chapel is visiting in this community.

Mr. Horace Brown and wife visited at her father's Mr. J. W. Caldwell.

Long Lane school is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Lilla Baker.

Long Lane farmers are behind in farm work, but keep your eye on us when it quits raining.

Long Lane always has something good to eat. Mr. Chas. H. Suber killed a hog that weighed 400 lbs last Monday. Hard to beat.

We are glad that Dr. Renwick is moving back to his old home. Wish we had more men just like the Dr. in our neighborhood.

Ask Mr. Ben Caldwell about them cat fish, also see T. D. Ramage about that big 12-lb opossum. It is the finest opossum that I ever saw.

Road working is all the go in Long Lane. Knotty Head.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME & SODA

will generally correct this difficulty. If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.
